

REMEMBERING BENZIE:

An Oral History Project

August 2020 Update

As we wrap up our first year of the Remembering Benzie Oral History Project we would like to thank and congratulate our interns: AuSable Kreiner, Melia Lorenz, Finn McLaren, and Reeve Katt and our intern coordinator: Ferd DeGuia!

Launching a new program is never easy, especially in a year with many changes and challenges, but we were very blessed to have an amazing team that rolled with the punches. They produced great work; work that they should all be extremely proud of. Here is a recap of their extraordinary journey:

- ◆ In depth training on interview protocol, managing equipment and editing with the awesome team from the University of Michigan School of Information
- ◆ Interviews with local veterans for the Library of Congress Veteran's History Project
- ◆ Informal Christmas Magic interviews with local families
- ◆ In depth Legacy Project interviews
- ◆ History in the Making interviews with local teachers and students regarding their personal quarantine experience
- ◆ A 15-20 minute video completed by each intern reflecting on their project experience.

We are impressed by their work and are delighted to be able to help our community share their stories. We wish our departing interns the very best as they move forward to the next chapter in their own stories.

Please visit the Remembering Benzie YouTube channel to view some of these extraordinary interviews. More interviews, as well as the student videos, will be posted in the coming months. To receive updates please subscribe to the Remembering Benzie YouTube page and set up your account for notifications.

This project was made possible in part by the Institute of Museum and Library Services LG-27-19-0151-19.
